The Chinese University of Hong Kong Appoints New Council Members

Eminent businessman Mr Lee Hon-chiu has been appointed by The Chinese University of Hong Kong as one of its new Council Members from June 10, 1992 to October 17, 1993.

Mr Lee is currently chairman and managing director of Hysan Development Company Limited. He also serves as non-executive director of many public and business organizations, including the Securities and Futures Commission, Cathay Pacific Airways Limited, Hang Seng Bank Limited, the Hong Kong and China Gas Company Limited, HSBC Holdings plc., and Sime Darby Hong Kong Limited.

Born in Hong Kong in 1929, Mr Lee graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1952 and acquired a master degree of science from Stanford University three years later.

Mr Lee is also an active figure in education and community service. He is a member of the University Court of the University of Hong Kong, Council of the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, and member of the Institute for Research and Consultancy of the City Polytechnic of Hong Kong. He has been involved in the activities of the Hong Kong Society for the Protection of Children since 1978.

Meanwhile, in his new capacity as Head of New Asia College, Professor Leung Ping-chung has replaced Professor Lin Tzong-biau as a member of the University Council for a period of four years from August 1, 1992.

Professor Leung is the Professor of Orthopaedics and Traumatology of the University's Faculty of Medicine.

Dr Fanny M C Cheung and Dr Serena S H Jin have also been elected by the assembly of fellows of Chung Chi College and New Asia College respectively as members of the University Council.

Their terms of office will both last for three years till April 1995.
