Graduation Exhibition 1997 of the Department of Fine Arts, CUHK Press Release

Since its establishment in 1957, the Department of Fine Arts, CUHK, has aimed at inheriting and strengthening Chinese culture, integrating Chinese and Western art, and providing tertiary education for the visual arts in Hong Kong. It now offers fundamental courses on the theory and practice of Chinese and Western art, as well as advanced courses where students are free to take according to their own interests.

The Department organizes Graduation Exhibition for the final-year students annually in order to reveal the students' ideas, interests, training, and creative talent. Through the Exhibition, students are able to express themselves, to learn from each other, and to communicate with the public. This year, 34 students are participating in the exhibition. Different media of art works will be shown, such as Chinese landscape painting, birds and flowers painting, oil painting, acrylic painting, sculpture, ceramics, printmaking, mixed media etc.

This exhibition will be held at the West-wing Galleries of the Art Museum, Institute of Chinese studies, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, from 31 May (Saturday) to 6 July (Sunday). An opening ceremony is scheduled on 31 May (Saturday) at 3:00pm. Opening hours are 10:00am-4:30pm daily (Sunday and public holidays: 12:30pm-4:30pm). All are welcomed.
