新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

The Centre for Hong Kong Studies of The Chinese University of Hong Kong and the Goethe Institute will jointly organize a symposium on "Youth Problems in Hong Kong and in Germany" on Monday, October 3, 1983 in the University.

The Symposium is intended to contribute to a better understanding of youth problems in Hong Kong and Germany and help facilitate intellectual exchanges between the two countries.

Speakers at the Symposium will include 6 scholars who all have special interest and expertise in youth problems. They are: Professor Gunther Kaiser, Professor of Law, Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Court Law; Professor Horst E. Richter, Professor of Psychosomatic Medicine, University of Giessen; and Professor Andreas Flitner, Professor of Pedagogy, University of Tübingen; all from Germany; as well as three staff members from The Chinese University: Dr. Agnes Ng and Mr. Alex Tang of the Department of Social Work and Dr. Tak Shing Cheung of the Department of Sociology.

The Symposium will be held from 2:15 to 5:45 p.m. in the Conference Hall of the University Administration Building. The opening remarks will be given by Dr. A. Kuhn, Consul General of the Federal Republic of Germany and Professor Tzong-biao Lin, Director of Centre for Hong Kong Studies & Professor of Economics of the University.

The Symposium is open to the public, and interested members may get further details from the University's Centre for Hong Kong Studies (Tel. 0-6331111 Ext. 588).

September 27, 1983.
