CUHK to Stage the Orientation Day for Sixth Formers

The Chinese University of Hong Kong will stage an Orientation Day for Sixth Formers on Saturday, October 5 from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm at the university campus.

The Orientation Day aims at familiarizing senior form students in Hong Kong, especially the sixth formers, with the academic programmes and facilities of the Chinese University. The six faculties, namely the Faculties of Arts, Business Administration, Engineering, Medicine, Science and Social Science, will provide the most up-to-date information for visiting students on their departments/programmes.

The Chinese University is rapidly expanding its academic programmes. Apart from the newly-established Faculty of Engineering and Faculty of Education, new programmes in Japanese Studies, Nursing and Systems Engineering have also been launched this year. The Department of Architecture has taken in its first batch of students in September and a new Department of Pharmacy will be added to the Faculty of Medicine in the coming year.

An Opening Ceremony will be held at 10:00 am at the Sir Run Run Shaw Hall of the university that morning. Prof S W Tam, Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the Chinese University of Hong Kong and Chairman of the Organizing Committee on Orientation Day for Sixth Formers, will officiate at the ceremony.

Free shuttle bus service will be arranged for visiting students on the day.

Enquiries on the Orientation Day for Sixth Formers could be directed to Mrs Gloria Chan of the Admissions Section at 6098949.
