The Chinese University of Hong Kong held its 37th Congregation for the conferment of first degrees yesterday (December 8) in the University. The Pro-Chancellor of the University, Sir Yuet-Keung Kan, officiated at the ceremony. The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Charles K Kao, addressed the Congregation. Over 4,000 graduates, parents and guests attended the function.

This year, 1,354 graduates received their first degrees. These included 303 Bachelors of Arts, 255 Bachelors of Business Administration, 66 Bachelors of Medicine and Bachelors of Surgery, 349 Bachelors of Science and 381 Bachelors of Social Science.

Bachelor's degrees in two subjects - Chinese & English and Business Administration - were conferred for the first time this year to 57 students taking Part-time Undergraduate Studies. The University's Part-time Degree Programmes are designed primarily for working adults and will normally take six years to complete.
