UNIVERSITY'S CAMPUS TO OPEN ON NOV 20 & 21

An Open Day to strengthen the ties between the Chinese University and the community at large will be held at the Chinese University's campus at Shatin on November 20 (2:00 pm - 6:00 pm) and 21 (9:00 am - 5:00 pm). All are welcome to join.

A triennial event, the Open Day will feature a diverse programme of activities including exhibitions, forums, entertainment programmes and tours of campus facilities.

The highlight of the programme will be the debate on "Whether exit and entry freedom of Hong Kong people must be given concrete assurance after 1997" to be held on November 20 at 4:00 pm at the Mall of the University.

Legislator Emily Lau Wai-hing and Chairman of the Democratic Alliance for Betterment of Hong Kong, Mr Tsang Yok Shing, will join the academics and students of the Chinese University in the debate. Members of the public will also have the chance to speak on the motion and cast vote for the winning team.

An opening ceremony will be held on November 20 at 3:00 pm at the podium of the University's Science Centre. Officiating guests include Vice-Chancellor of the University, Prof Charles K Kao, Council Member of the University Mr David W K Sin, Chairman of the Commission for Youth the Hon Eric Li Ka Cheung, and Executive Secretary of the Lee Hysan Foundation Dr Deanna Lee Rudgard. On the same occasion, the Chinese University 30th Anniversary Scholarships will be presented to fourteen outstanding students.

Special bus service running between the University Train Station and the central campus will be provided for visitors during the Open Day. For enquiries, please ring 609 7203 or 609 7210.
