新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

An International Conference on "Modernization and Chinese Culture" will take place at The Chinese University of Hong Kong from March 7 to 11, 1983.

Organized by the University's Faculty of Social Science and the Institute of Social Studies, and financed mainly by the Rockefeller Brothers Funds in New York, the Conference aims at providing an opportunity for prominent sinologists from different parts of the world to get-together and share with each other their academic experience and expertise concerning the process of modernization and the role of Chinese culture in it.

Up to 18 distinguished scholars from Mainland China, Taiwan, Singapore, and America, together with 13 participants from the local academic circle will take part in the Conference.

The Opening Ceremony, to be officiated by the Vice-Chancellor of The Chinese University, Dr. Ma Lin, will be held on the morning of March 7.

March 4, 1983

Dear Editors,

You are cordially invited to send a reporter and/or a photographer to cover the Opening Ceremony of the above Conference to be held on Monday, March 7, from 10 to 10:40 a.m. at the Cho Yiu Conference Hall in the University Administration Building. The Ceremony will be followed by a tea reception.

Enclosed herewith for your reference please find a list of participants to the Conference. The Vice-Chancellor's opening address will be distributed to the press after the Opening Ceremony, and press interviews could also be arranged.
