

香港中文大學
THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

查詢電話
ENQUIRY
TELEPHONE NUMBER
0-6045592

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces the appointment of Dr Ng Lee Ming, Reader in Religion and Director of the Office of Part-time Degree Studies at the university, as University Registrar with effect from March 19, 1990 to succeed Professor Yeung Yue-man who will return to full-time academic appointment as Professor of Geography at the university after his four-year term as University Registrar expires.

Dr Ng, aged 53, was born in Hong Kong. A graduate of the International Christian University in Tokyo in 1961 and Princeton Theological Seminary, USA where he obtained the Degree of Doctor of Theology in 1970, Dr Ng joined the Chinese University as Lecturer in Religion in 1970, was promoted as Senior Lecturer in 1980 and Reader in 1987. The various administrative appointments he has held include Acting Registrar of Chung Chi College 1976-77, Chairman of the Department of Religion 1979-84, Dean of the Faculty of Arts 1983-86, Faculty Admissions Tutor 1983-87, and since 1987 he has been Director of the university's Office of Part-time Degree Studies. Dr Ng has also served on various committees of the university.

Outside the university, Dr Ng made contributions as a member of the Planning Committee for the Open Learning Institute of Hong Kong and is now serving on the Council of the Institute. Over the years, Dr Ng has spent his sabbatical in Japan, North America and South-east Asia and he is closely associated with such international educational foundations as the United Board for Christian Higher Education in Asia.

February 6, 1990