新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

The Fine Arts Department of The Chinese University of Hong Kong will stage its annual art exhibition from June 11-13 in the City Hall Exhibition Hall (Low Block). The exhibition is sponsored by the Urban Council.

Items on display will include more than two hundred pieces of creative art works, featuring modern ink painting, oil painting, watercolor, sculpture, calligraphy, sea carving, ceramics, print-making, Chinese painting and paper art. These works are done by some seventy students and the following teachers in the Department: Liu Kuo-sung, Kwong Yeu-ting, Lee Yun-woon, Kao Mu-sen, Cheng Ming, Chung Yee, Jao Tsung-i, Lee Fuk-wah, Tang Hung, Chu Hon-sun and Ma Kwok-kuen.

Selected works staged in the Exhibition will be given commendatory prizes for their outstanding creativity and style. These prizes include: the New Asia Prize, Mr. Y.S. Hui Awards in Chinese Painting and Calligraphy, the Ramon Woon Creative Prize and two prizes in memory of Mr. Ting Yen-yung.

The exhibition will formally be opened by Mr. Hilton Cheong-Leen, Chairman of the Urban Council, and Professor Gerald H. Choa, Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University, on Monday, June 11, at 3:30 p.m. at the exhibition site. During the ceremony, Professor Choa will also receive a donation of $45,000 from the Chairperson of the Friends of the University's Art Gallery, Mrs. Iren Dunning, for the establishment of a total of six Friends of the Art Gallery Scholarships to be awarded in the next three years to outstanding Fine Arts students in the University.
