New Exhibition at the Art Gallery

An exhibition of "Selections from the Art Gallery Collection" is now on view at the Art Gallery of The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

The exhibition features more than one hundred items drawn from the permanent collection of the Art Gallery. Some of the recent acquisition are also on display. Exhibits include bronzes, Chinese ceramics from the Neolithic period to Qing Shiwan pottery, paintings of the Yangzhou artists and the Guangdong masters as well as objects for the scholar's desk, bronze seals and inscribed tile terminals.

A number of monumental paintings by the Guangdong master, Su Renshan are selected for the exhibition. Su (1814-1849?) is specially noted for his vigorous brushwork and was regarded as "an eccentric artist" at his time. All of his paintings on show were executed in a free and dynamic style and are representative of his works.

The exhibition will run about two weeks until May 13, admission free.

The Gallery hours are:
Weekdays: 10:00 am - 4:30 pm
Sundays: 12:30 pm - 4:30 pm
