

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

TO NEWS EDITOR

February 7, 1996.

Press Invitation for the 2nd Asian-Pacific Burns Conference

The Department of Surgery, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, is hosting the 2nd Asian-Pacific Burns Conference from February 9-11 at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Dr E K Yeoh, Chief Executive of Hospital Authority, will address at the Opening Ceremony on February 9. Dr C J Romer, Chief of WHO; Dr Basil Pruitt, President of International Society for Burns Injuries; Dr Naoki Aikawa, President of Japanese Society for Burns Injuries and Dr Tung Man Kwong, President of Hong Kong Burns Society will be present.

Professor Walter W K King of the Department of Surgery, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, will announce at the press conference the same day the major advances in Burns Care- first time in Asia artificial skin has been successfully applied to treat two Hong Kong patients with major burns at Prince of Wales Hospital. Photographs of Asia's first successful clinical application of artificial skin (Integra) will be distributed to the press. The patient, Mr Wong Fan Fan, will be available for interview by the press.

You are cordially invited to send a representative to cover the Conference. Details are as follows:

Opening Ceremony

Date : February 9, 1996.
Time : 8:00am
Place : Lecture Theatre II,
Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Press Conference

Date : February 9, 1996.
Time : 10:30am
Place : Lecture Theatre I,
Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre.

For Enquiries : 2632-2617 (Before February 9)
2582-8850 (February 9-11)

* * * * *