Applications for Admission under the Provisional Acceptance Scheme of
The Chinese University of Hong Kong Invited

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announced that applications for admission in 1985 under the Provisional Acceptance Scheme will be accepted from 17th September, 1984 (Monday) to 6th October, 1984 (Saturday), inclusive. Sixth-formers can apply through their schools or directly to the Admissions and Registration Section of The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Shortlisted applicants will be requested to attend an interview conducted by the Faculties or Streams in which they have indicated preferences. The interviews will take place during school holidays between late December, 1984 and early January, 1985. In assessing the applicants, consideration will be given to the Certificate of Education Examination results, conduct at school, achievements in extra-curricular activities and performance in the interview.

It is envisaged that the applicants who are given provisional offers will be notified in early March, 1985 (in February, if time permits).

In order to gain formal admission, sixth-formers of the one-year sixth-form stream who are granted provisional offers will be required to take the Hong Kong Higher Level Examination in April, 1985 and obtain grade E in at least five subjects (including Chinese Language and Literature and English Language). On the other hand, sixth-formers of the two-year sixth-form stream who are granted provisional offers will have to pay assessment fees, sit for and pass the "Final Scholastic Assessment" administered by The Chinese University of Hong Kong in July, 1985. Applicants with provisional offers who are qualified for formal admission under the Provisional Acceptance Scheme are required to enrol in the year the offers are made.

Sixth-form students who do not get provisional offers or those who fail to gain formal admission after being provisionally admitted will have another chance in applying for admission. Students of the one-year sixth-form stream can sit for the Hong Kong Higher Level Examination and apply for admission on the strength of their results. Two-year sixth-form students should get promoted to Form Seven and sit for the Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination. They can apply for admission on the strength of their Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination results provided that they obtain grade E or above in Chinese Language and Literature at the Hong Kong Higher Level Examination or the Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination.

Application forms and information leaflets are now available at the Admissions & Registration Section, CUHK, Shatin, N. T. and the Department of Extramural Studies, CUHK, at 14/F., Oriental Centre, 67 Chatham Road, Kowloon. All enquiries concerning the Provisional Acceptance Scheme and other admissions and registration matters should be directed to the Admissions & Registration Section, CUHK (0 - 6352257).
