

香港中文大學
THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

查詢電話
ENQUIRY
TELEPHONE NUMBER
0-6045592

The Diploma Course in Training Management 1987/88

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces that applications are invited for its 1987/88 Diploma Course in Training Management organized by the Department of General Business Management and Personnel Management (GBM & PMI) in collaboration with the Department of Extramural Studies.

First introduced six years ago, the Diploma Course is intended to meet the growing demand in Hong Kong for management talent and skills in the training and development field. Students who have successfully completed the course will not only be awarded a diploma from The Chinese University, but will also have fulfilled the academic requirements of membership of the Institute of Training and Development (ITD) in the UK, which will qualify them for the award of the UK Diploma in Training and Development on application to ITD.

The 1987/88 Course will commence in September at the University campus in Shatin on every Saturday from 9:00 am to 4:30 pm until mid-July 1988. Course instructors include staff members of the Department of GBM & PMI, and experts in training and development from the community.

Applicants should be currently employed in the training/personnel or related fields; aged 23 and up; bilingual; and holder of a university degree/a post-secondary diploma/a Certificate in Training and Development/a Certificate in Personnel Management/or an approved professional qualification.

Enquiries may be directed to Mr Danny W L Cheng, the Programme Associate Director (Tel: 0-6952769). Application forms, and further information are available at The Chinese University's Department of Extramural Studies on 13th floor, 67 Chatham Road, Tsimshatsui, Kowloon. Deadline for application is July 18, 1987.

June 17, 1987