Memorial Service for Dr Choh-Ming Li

Students, alumni and members of the Chinese University mourned the passing of Dr Choh-Ming Li, Founding Vice-Chancellor of the University, at the Memorial Service held at 3:00 pm at the Sir Run Run Shaw Hall on campus yesterday (May 11, 1991). Sir David Wilson, Chancellor of the University, who is now on an overseas trip, sent his Aide-de-Camp to pay respects to Dr Li on his behalf.

Mrs Sylvia Li, widow of Dr Choh-Ming Li came to Hong Kong from California to be present at the Service. She was accompanied by her eldest son, Mr Winston Li, and other family members.

The Memorial Service began with the organ prelude on "Requiem" and presentation of wreaths from Mr Thomas H C Cheung, Chairman, Federation of Alumni Associations of The Chinese University of Hong Kong and Mr Ma Kei, President, Student Union of The Chinese University of Hong Kong. Eulogies were delivered by Sir Yuet-keung Kan, Pro-Chancellor of the University, Sir Quo-wei Lee, Council Chairman of the University and Prof Charles K Kao, Vice-Chancellor of the University. Prof Ambrose King, Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University, also delivered a speech recounting Dr Choh-Ming Li's life and career.

During the Service, solo singing and anthem were performed by staff, students and alumni of the University in remembrance of the late Dr Choh-Ming Li.

Participants of the Memorial Service also included friends of Dr Choh-Ming Li, former members of the University, representatives of other tertiary education institutions and community leaders.
