

國際交換計劃學部

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES PROGRAMMES

TEL: 609 7597

FAX: 603 5045

E-mail: B114766@CUCSC.BITNET.

Press Release: International Conference on Hong Kong 1997

The Office of International Studies Programmes (OISP) and the Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE) will be organising a conference entitled "Hong Kong and 1997: Politics, Culture, and the Emergence of South China". The seminar schedule is as follows:

Monday, 22 November

- 10:00 Opening Ceremony
Professor S.W. Tam, Pro-Vice Chancellor, CUHK
- 13:00 "Hong Kong and 1997"*
Ms. Emily Lau, Legislative Councillor, HK
- 15:00 "The City in the 19th and Early 20th Century"***
Rev. Carl Smith, Royal Asiatic Society

Tuesday, 23 November

- 9:30 "History of Hong Kong"
Dr. N.H. Lun Ng, History Dept, CUHK
- 11:00 "Preparing for One Country Two Systems? Constitutional and Other Legal Developments in the 1990's"
Mr. Hin-Lee Wong, Barrister-at-Law
- 13:30 "New Territories Old and New: Village, Market and New Town"**
Dr. Liu Tik-Sang, HK University of Science & Technology

Wednesday, 24 November

- 9:30 "Practical Problems Encountered in Current Joint-Venture: Manufacturing in China's Coastal Economic Zones Today"
Dr. W.K. Quon, Microline Circuits Ltd
- 11:00 "Hong Kong's Economic and Political Role in China's Modernization".
Dr. Yun-Wing Sung, Economics Dept, CUHK
- 14:00 "The Development of Politics among Hong Kong People, 1982-Present"***
Dr. Michael DeGolyer, History Dept., Hong Kong Baptist College

Friday, 26 November ***

- 9:30 "The Three Polities: PRC, Taiwan and Hong Kong"
Prof. Byron S.J. Weng, GPA Dept, CUHK
- 11:00 "The Basic Law and the Transitional Period of Hong Kong"
Mr. Andrew Wong, GPA Dept, CUHK
- 14:00 "From Dependence to Self-sufficiency: The Rise of the Indigenous Culture of Hong Kong"
Dr. Choi Po-King, Educational Adm. & Policy Dept, CUHK

A list of the conference participants is included for your reference.

Most seminars will be held in Cho Yiu Hall, University Administration Building except for the following:

* Rm 330, Central Government Offices-West, Central

** conference tour

*** Rm126, Institute of Chinese Studies, CUHK