Exhibition of Late Qing Imperial Porcelain
at The Chinese University Art Gallery

The Art Gallery of The Chinese University of Hong Kong is mounting an "Exhibition of Imperial Porcelain of Late Qing from the Kwan Collection". This exhibition is the first attempt to assemble a comprehensive and representative collection of imperial wares from the Daoguang to the Xuantong reigns. The general belief that a gradual decline in both quantity and quality in porcelain production after the Qianlong reign has obscured the virtuosity and artistic talents of the potters of this period. The exhibits numbering some 160 items are all products of the Imperial Factory at Jingdezhen in Jiangxi and date from the 19th century to the early years of the present century. Among the exhibits are ritual vessels, daily utensils, objects for the scholar's desk, bestowals and souvenirs.

The exhibition opens to the public from 13th August to 25th September and the opening hours of the Art Gallery are :

Monday to Saturday: 9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Sundays & holidays: 12:30 - 4:30 p.m.
Friday Closed.
