

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

香港中文大學當代亞洲研究中心於一九八五年開辦一項綜合科際研究計劃，分析中國開放政策與經濟特區的發展及它帶來的社會衝擊。鑒於各界人士對該方面之研究日益關注，該中心訂於四月二日至四日一連三天假該校祖堯堂會議廳舉辦一題為「中國經濟特區和開放政策：發展與前景」國際會議。

十六位來自中國及日本之專家聯同超過三十位本地學者將出席該研討會，並就會議主題之研究交流意見，包括探討經濟特區的政策發展、管理實踐，從地理角度觀察其將來的轉變，以及對社會構成的衝擊。

歡迎各界人士參加，詳情請電詢中大當代亞洲研究中心（01-6952026或01-6952029）。

The Centre for Contemporary Asian Studies (CCAS) of The Chinese University of Hong Kong has initiated an interdisciplinary research programme in 1985 to study the development and social impact of China's special economic zones and open policy. In view of the growing interests in this area, the CCAS will organize an international conference entitled "China's Special Economic Zones and Open Policy: Development and Perspective", which will be held from April 2 to 4, 1987 at the Conference Hall of University Administration Building at the University.

16 scholars from China and Japan together with over 30 local academics will participate in the 3-day Conference and exchange views on policy development, geographical change, social impact and management practices in the special economic zones in China.

All interested are welcome to participate in the Conference. For further information please contact the CCAS, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Shatin (Tel 0-6952026, 0-6952029).
