

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

Application Procedures for the Provisional Acceptance Scheme of
The Chinese University of Hong Kong Announced

The Chinese University of Hong Kong has announced the application procedures under the Provisional Acceptance Scheme which is going to be implemented this September. The first batch of students who apply for admission under this Scheme will be admitted in September, 1985.

A CUHK Spokesman announced that applications for admission will be invited between mid-September and early October this year and sixth-formers can apply through their schools or directly to the Admission and Registration Section of CUHK. Shortlisted applicants will be requested to attend an interview conducted by the academic staff of the faculties or streams in which they have indicated preferences. The interviews will take place between late December, 1984 and early January, 1985. In assessing the applicants, consideration will be given to the Certificate of Education Examination results, but distinguished performance in extra-curricular activities will also be taken into account.

It is envisaged that selected applicants who are given provisional offers will be notified by early March, 1985 (in February, 1985 if time permits).

Sixth-formers of the one-year sixth-form stream who are granted provisional offers will be required to take the Higher Level Examination in April, 1985 and obtain Grade E in at least five subjects (including Chinese Language and Literature and English Language) for formal admission. On the other hand, sixth-formers of the two-year sixth-form stream who are granted provisional offers will have to sit for and pass the "Final Scholastic Assessment", which is an assessment administered by CUHK in July, 1985, before formal admission is granted.

Students who fail to get provisional offers will have another chance for gaining admission. Students of the two sixth-form streams can either sit for the Higher Level Examination or the Advanced Level Examination and apply for admission on the strength of the results obtained in these two examinations.

The CUHK Spokesman added that students may approach the Admission and Registration Section for further information (0-6352271). Information leaflets are also available at the Department of Extramural Studies, CUHK, at 13/F., Oriental Centre, 67 Chatham Road, Kowloon (3-669361) or the CUHK Three-year MBA Programme Town Centre at Unit 308, East Ocean Centre, 98 Granville Road, Tsim Sha Tsui East, Kowloon (3-7225808) (from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. only).

February 25, 1984.