

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces that two Congregations will be held on campus in 1983. These include the 25th Congregation for the conferment of honorary degrees which will take place on the occasion of the 20th anniversary day on October 17; and the 26th Congregation for the conferment of first and higher degrees on December 8. His Excellency the Governor and Chancellor of the University, Sir Edward Youde, will officiate at both of the ceremonies.

Five distinguished persons who will be awarded honorary degrees at the 25th Congregation are: Sir William Melville Arnott, Doctor of Science, honoris causa; Dr. the Hon. Sir Sze-yuen Chung, Doctor of Laws, honoris causa; the Hon. Sir Philip Haddon-Cave, Doctor of Laws, honoris causa; Dr. Joseph Needham, Doctor of Science, honoris causa; and Dr. the Hon. Francis Y.H. Tien, Doctor of Social Science, honoris causa.

Sir Melville Arnott, MB ChB, BSc, MD(Edinburg), MD (Birmingham), TD, DSc(Hon), LL.D(Hon), is Emeritus Professor of Medicine at the University of Birmingham and an Honorary Consulting Physician of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in the U.K. He was a member of the Hong Kong University and Polytechnic Grants Committee between 1964 and 1975 and is presently a member of the Chinese University's Medical Academic Advisory Committee.

Dr. the Hon. Sir Sze-yuen Chung, CBE, BSc(Hong Kong), PhD (Sheffield), DSc(Hon), JP, is the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Sonca Industrial Limited and Director of many public and private companies. He has been the Senior Unofficial Member of the Executive Council since 1980, and is widely accepted as one of the leading figures in Hong Kong.

The Hon. Sir Philip Haddon-Cave, KBE, CMG, MA(Tasmania), JP, has had a long and distinguished career in the public service whose skills as a creative economist introducing the judicious economic policy of "positive non-interventionalism" have been highly commended. He is presently the Chief Secretary of the Hong Kong Government.

Dr. Joseph Needham, MA, PhD, ScD(Cambridge), DSc(Hon), LL.D (Hon), DLitt(Hon), PhD(Hon), is a world-renowned scholar and authority on the study of history of science. Having established a lifelong link of over five decades with Cambridge University (Gonville and Caius College), he presently serves as Director of Cambridge's East Asian History of Science Library and is Emeritus Reader in Biochemistry of the University.

Dr. the Hon. Francis Y.H. Tien, OBE, Dip(Henry Lester), LL.D(Hon), JP, is a distinguished figure in the industrial field. Apart from being an authority on textile, he has also devoted his great efforts in promoting manpower training for the industry. He is the Managing Director of Manhattan Garments Limited and a director of various business concerns.
