CANCER EXHIBITION ORGANISED BY CUHK

A health exhibition tour with cancer as its theme will be opened this Saturday (July 14) in the City Hall. The exhibition is an annual event presented by the Medical Society of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) to promote general health knowledge among the public.

Materials on display at the exhibition will cover the causes, promoting factors and therapies of cancer in addition to statistics related to the occurrence, mortality and recovery rates of common cancer types. Besides, symptoms, diagnosis and self-examination methods of such cancer types as well as various relevant services and facilities in Hong Kong will also be included.

In line with the exhibition, an interflow program will be organised in conjunction with Taiwan's Chang Gung Medical College, China Medical College and Kaohsiung Medical College from 22nd to 31st July. A symposium to be held at the Lecture Theatre of the Prince of Wales Hospital on 27th July will discuss statistics associated with various types of cancer in Hong Kong and Taiwan, common types of cancer, related diagnosis, therapies, services and facilities.

The dates and venues of the exhibition are as follows: July 14 & 15 - Exhibition Hall, Lower Block, City Hall; July 18 & 19 - New Town Plaza, Shatin; and July 23 to 25 - Exhibition Gallery, Hong Kong Cultural Centre. The daily opening hours are from 10 am to 6 pm except for July 14 (1 pm to 6 pm).

To mark the beginning of this seven-day event, an opening ceremony will be held on July 14 (Saturday) at 11:30 am in the Exhibition Hall of City Hall. Guests of honour officiating at the ceremony will be Dr C H Leong, member of the Legislative Council; Mr Ronald Chow, member of the Legislative Council; Dr S H Lee, Director of Health; Dr T Y Chau, Director of Hospital Services; Prof T E Oh, Dean of Faculty of Medicine; and Prof Joseph C K Lee, Advisor of Medical Society, CUHK.
