

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

Graduate School

Starting from March 1, 1984 the Graduate School of The Chinese University of Hong Kong will invite applications for admission in September, 1984 to the following newly-established graduate programmes:

1. Specialization Master of Business Administration Programme in Marketing and International Business (MBA); and
2. Two-Year Part-time Postgraduate Diploma in Social Work

For admission to the Specialization MBA Programme, applicants must have a Bachelor's degree in business administration from a recognized university with at least Second Class honours or expect to receive one this summer.

For admission to the Part-time Diploma in Social Work Programme, applicants must have a Bachelor's degree from a recognized university. Candidates should have majored in fields other than social work but have an interest in social service and be employed in a social service agency.

Unless exempted, applicants are required to take the Entrance Examination administered by the Graduate School, which consists of a Chinese Language Admission Test, subject tests and an interview. They must also register for the Test of English as a Foreign Language administered by the Education Testing Service. The Graduate Management Admission Test is also required of those applying for the MBA Programme.

The annual tuition fee is HK$3,600 for the full-time programme and HK$4,800 for the part-time programme, payable by two instalments. All new students have to pay a Caution Money of HK$200.

Application forms for the above two programmes are obtainable from the following offices on or after March 1, 1984:

- (a) Office of the Graduate School, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Administration Building, Lower Ground Floor, Shatin, New Territories; and
- (b) The Chinese University Three-Year MBA Programme Town Centre, 98 Granville Road, East Ocean Centre, Unit 308, Tsimshatsui East.

The closing date for the application is April 2, 1984.

February 27, 1984