Civil Service Careers Exhibition

A two-day Civil Service Careers Exhibition is at present being held at The Chinese University of Hong Kong. The Exhibition was opened by the Hon. Mr. Justice T.L. Yang, Chairman, University & Polytechnic Grants Committee; Mr. H.S. Grewal, Deputy Secretary for the Civil Service and The Hon. W.C.L. Brown, Chairman of the University Appointments Board, at a brief ceremony held yesterday (November 3).

The Civil Service Careers Exhibition, located at the University Auditorium - Sir Run Run Shaw Hall, is arranged by the University's Appointments Service in collaboration with the Civil Service Branch of the Government Secretariat. This Exhibition aims at providing the students of the University with a comprehensive picture of career opportunities in the Civil Service. A total of 23 Government units have participated in the Exhibition, including the Social Welfare Department, Education Department, Inland Revenue Department, Royal Hong Kong Police Force, The Treasury, Home Affairs Branch (Chinese Language Division), Census and Statistics Department, Government Laboratory, Fire Services Department, Correctional Services Department, Transport Department, Immigration Department, Radio Television Hong Kong, Customs and Excise Department, Housing Department, Government Supplies Department, The Lands Department, New Territories Development Department, Administrative Grade, Executive Grade, Labour Department, Government Data Processing Agency, Civil Service Branch. These Departments also undertake to offer counselling service where students may seek advice from experienced Government Officers on the spot.

Last year, the Exhibition attracted large number of viewers.
