Two Chinese University Students Received Sports Awards

Two Chinese University students, Ada Lam and Godwin Leung are the winners of the athletic awards of HK$15,000 each, established for the first time at the Chinese University of Hong Kong by Citibank, N A.

The awards are offered each year to a male and a female student with outstanding athletic performance. Academic merits, leadership ability and sportsmanship of the candidates are also taken into consideration for the awards.

A fourth year Geography student, Ada Lam twice won the women's overall championship in the New Asia College Athletic Meet and has kept the record in women's high jump in the College. she also represented Hong Kong in the World Orienteering Championship 1989. Having been actively involved in promoting and organizing sports activities at the University, Ada plans to go abroad to further her studies in Physical Education. She intends to take up sports administration as her career.

Godwin Leung is in his fourth year in Medicine. He was the champion of the Intervarsity Tennis Competition and the first runner-up in the University Cup Tennis Competition in 1989. Seeded 18th among male tennis players in Hong Kong, he is also an active member of the Chinese University tennis team.

In career terms Godwin naturally takes a special interest in the treatment of sports injuries. At the same time he is aiming at higher achievements in tennis.
