The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Invites Applications for the Part-time
Degree Programmes

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces today that the University is inviting applications for admission to the Part-time Degree Programmes in the academic year 1994-95. The deadline for application is 31 March 1994.

The Part-time Degree Programmes were established to provide further training for working adults from different occupation sectors, and to offer opportunities for those who are interested in pursuing University degree but have missed the chance when they were at school. Programmes to be offered in 1994-95 include Chinese - English, Music, Physical Education and Primary Education.

The normal length of study is six years. Students have to complete at least 123 units of courses before graduation. However, those admitted on the strength of Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination results will be considered to have completed 24 units. Besides, students who have satisfied the special entrance requirements of certain programmes shall be granted unit exemption and may be graduated in three to four years.

Application forms can be obtained from the following offices:
