Business Administration Students Get Awards

Six Business Administration students of The Chinese University of Hong Kong have been awarded the Professor H. Sutu Prize on the basis of their academic results.

The Prize, awarded annually to academically outstanding students in the University's undergraduate and postgraduate Business Administration programmes, was established in 1979 through a $55,000 endowment fund raised by the Faculty of Business Administration to commemorate the retirement of Professor H. Sutu.

The six outstanding students who were awarded the Prizes, worth $1,500.00 each, for 1983/84 are: Mr. Wong Ka-pang (2nd year student, Two-year MBA Programme), Mr. Kong Ming-yin (2nd year student, Three-year MBA Programme), Mr. Lo Wai-kwok (3rd year student, Three-year MBA Programme), Mr. Leung Wai-ming (2nd year student, Department of Accounting & Finance), Miss Ho Pui-chi (2nd year student, Department of General Business Management & Personnel Management) and Mr. Lee Kwok-wai (2nd year student, Department of Marketing & International Business).

Professor Sutu had been with The Chinese University since its establishment in 1963. He was the founding Dean of the University's Faculty of Business Administration, and served concurrently as Director of the Two-year MBA Programme. He was also the founding Director of the Three-year MBA Programme.
