新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

An international workshop on "Early Childhood Nutritional Problems in the Far East", jointly hosted by the Department of Paediatrics of The Chinese University of Hong Kong and the Hong Kong Paediatric Society, will be held at the Lecture Theatre of the Prince of Wales Hospital in Shatin on November 28 to 29, 1987.

The two-day workshop will feature keynote speeches by world-renowned specialists in the field and include topics like nutritional requirements in early childhood, trends in formula feeding, breast breeding weaning dilemmas, and early childhood nutrition and the risk of disease in adult life.

Invited speakers from 10 countries/regions in the Far East will describe their commonly encountered nutritional problems of early childhood. These include malnutrition, growth failure, rickets and iron deficiency, allergy, obesity, infections, etc.

The opening ceremony to be held on Saturday, November 28 at 2.45 pm at the Lecture Theatre of the Prince of Wales Hospital, will be officiated by Mrs Elizabeth Wong, Director of Social Welfare. Dr Sam P Lau, President of the Hong Kong Paediatric Society and Professor D P Davies of the University's Department of Paediatrics will also deliver welcoming addresses.

The workshop is open to all who are interested in the field of early childhood nutrition. Further details of the workshop can be obtained from Mrs Lilian Tse at 0-6362850.
