CUHK to Hold 28th Congregation

The Chinese University of Hong Kong will hold its 28th Congregation for the conferment of first degrees tomorrow (December 6) in the University. In the absence of His Excellency the Chancellor, Sir Edward Youde, who will be away, the Ceremony will be officiated by the Pro-Chancellor, Sir Yuet-keung Kan. The Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Ma Lin, will address the assembly.

The Congregation will see 1,039 graduands receiving their degrees. These include 248 Bachelors of Arts, 212 Bachelors of Business Administration, 254 Bachelors of Science and 325 Bachelors of Social Science.

Higher Degrees for this year were already granted at the University's 27th Congregation which took place on October 18.
