Chinese University's Psychology Programmes Invite Applications

The Department of Psychology of The Chinese University of Hong Kong is offering both full-time and part-time post-graduate programmes leading to MPhil and PhD degrees.

The programmes will be taught by internationally-known faculty members whose research areas cover experimental psychology, cognitive psychology, social psychology, developmental psychology, industrial psychology and clinical psychology. Cross-cultural research is also conducted in all these subjects.

In addition, the Department of Psychology and the Department of Psychiatry will be offering a joint M.Phil/M.S.Sc programme as well as a PhD programme in Clinical Psychology in 1992-93 to meet the demand for clinical psychologists in counselling, teaching, research and government service.

Application forms for these programmes are available now. For admission into the programmes starting in September 1992, applications must reach the Graduate School at The Chinese University in Shatin before February 29, 1992. For details about admission requirements, please contact the Department of Psychology at 609-6486.
