POLITICIANS JOIN DEBATE ON CHINESE UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

Legislator Emily Lau Wai-hing and Chairman of the Democratic Alliance for Betterment of Hong Kong, Mr. Tsang Yok Shing, will join academics, students and members of the public in a debate on "Whether exit and entry freedom of Hong Kong people must be given concrete assurance after 1997" on November 20 (Saturday) during the Chinese University Open Day.

An event to strengthen the ties between the University and the community at large, the Open Day will feature a variety of activities including an exhibition, forums, entertainment programmes and the debate.

To be conducted in Cantonese, the debate will be held at 4 p.m. on November 20 at the University Mall. Members of the public who attend will have the chance to speak on the motion and cast vote for the winning team.

Lau and Tsang will be joined in the debate by Senior Lecturer in Psychology, Dr. Leung Kwok; Lecturer in Government and Public Administration, Dr. Eliza Lee; and students from the CUHK debating team, Mr. Cheung Leong and Miss Leung Man Fong.

The debate will be chaired by the Director of the Chinese University Press, Mr. Tsim Tak Lung; and CUHK Debating Team manager, Mr. Cheng Kong Chung.

For seat reservation and enquiries, please call the CUHK's Office of Student Affairs at 609-7203 or 609-7210.

For press enquiries, please call Mrs Shirley Kwok of the Information Office at 609-7294.
