新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces that the Third of the University's 20th Anniversary Lecture Series to be given by Professor Ma Hong, President of The Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, will take place on Wednesday, September 28, 1983 at 4:15 p.m. in the Sir Run Run Shaw Hall on the University campus. Professor Ma, who will make a special trip to Hong Kong for the lecture, will speak on "Prospects for Modernization in China - An Economic Perspective".

Professor Ma is a highly respected social scientist in China specializing in economic research and planning. Apart from being the President of The Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, he currently serves as Convenor of the Economic Research Center of the State Council, responsible official of the Technical Economic Study Centre of the State Council, and an Advisor to the State Commission for Restructuring Economic System in the Chinese Government.

The University's Anniversary Lecture Series consists of four lectures given by invited scholars of international repute in different fields. These include the first two lectures on Science and Arts, given earlier this year respectively by Professor C.N. Yang, Nobel Laureate, Einstein Professor and Director of the Institute of Theoretical Physics at the State University of New York, Stonybrook, and Professor Ch'ien Mu, world renowned historian and Founder of New Asia College. The last of the Lecture Series on Business Administration will be conducted by Dr. C.M. Li, founding Vice-Chancellor of The Chinese University and Emeritus Professor of Business Administration at the University of California in Berkeley, who will speak on "Business Administration and University Education" on October 13.

Professor Ma's Lecture on Social Science is open to the public. Audiences coming from town are advised to take the electrified KCR train. Free bus service between the University Train Station and the Sir Run Run Shaw Hall will be provided on the afternoon of September 28 both before and after the lecture.

September 26, 1983.

Dear Editors,

This is the second release of the same news item intended as a reminder to interested members of the community after the last publication on September 19. You are cordially invited to send a reporter and/or photographer to cover the above Lecture, the text of which will be distributed on the spot. For further details, please ring 0-6045592.
