Lecture on "The Reintegration of Hong Kong and the Guangdong Economy"

The Chinese University of Hong Kong will present the fifth Li & Fung Lecture on Commerce & Industry on Thursday, April 4, 1991 at 5:20 pm in Theatre II of the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre.

The speaker is Professor Ezra Vogel. He will speak on "The Reintegration of Hong Kong and the Guangdong Economy".

Professor Vogel is Henry Ford II Professor of the Social Sciences at Harvard University. He is a specialist on Modern China and Japan. At Harvard, he has served as Director of the East Asian Research Centre and Director of the Program on US-Japan Relations at the Centre for International Affairs.

His book, Japan as Number One, has been widely read and cited in different parts of the world. Professor Vogel's recent book, One Step Ahead in China: Guangdong Under Reform is another ground breaking publication. There is a detailed coverage of Guangdong in the context of the newly developed economies of East Asia.

The "Li & Fung Lecture Programme" was established in 1981 under the auspices of the MBA Programmes of the University's Faculty of Business Administration and is financed by an endowment fund given by the Li & Fung Group of Companies in commemoration of the 75th anniversary of the Company.
