

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

TO NEWS EDITOR
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 28, 1995

New Pro-Vice-Chancellor at CUHK

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces the appointment of Professor Liu Pak-wai, Professor of Economics, as the new Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University, as from 1st October, 1995.

Professor Liu Pak-wai graduated from Princeton University in 1971 and obtained his Ph.D. in Economics from Stanford University in 1977. He joined The Chinese University as Lecturer in 1976, and was appointed Professor of Economics in 1994. Professor Liu's current research interest covers a number of areas, including labour market behaviour, human capital theory, labour contract, Chinese economy and Hong Kong economy etc.

Apart from teaching and research, Professor Liu also takes up a number of administrative duties in the university. He had been Dean of Students of United College (1978-1979); University Registrar (1982 to 1986); Chairman of the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Admissions and Convenor of the Working Group on Funding Methodology. He has been Chairman of the Economics Department since August 1991. He is also Research Director of the Hong Kong Centre for Economic Research; Director of Hong Kong and Asia Pacific Economic Research Programme of the Hong Kong Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies of the University, and Managing Editor of the Asian Economic Journal, the journal of East Asian Economic Association.

Professor Liu also actively participates in public service. He is the Founding Member of the Hong Kong Committee of Pacific Economic Co-operation. He also served on the Central Policy Unit of the Hong Kong Government. Recently he was appointed a member of the Flat Supply Sub-Committee of Land and Building Advisory Committee.

Professor Liu's appointment as Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University will be for a period of two years. The other two Pro-Vice-Chancellors of the University are Professor Ambrose Yeo-chi King and Professor Kenneth Young.