Architecture students facing big challenge

Fifty first-year architecture students at the Chinese University of Hong Kong are facing a big challenge of designing and building a six-meter-tall structure to be assembled on ground without the use of ladders on December 4 ( Monday ).

Named " Landmark Structure ", the project is aimed at enhancing the students' understanding and learning of the logic and creativity in the design of structure. The landmarks they are going to build will also be assessed in terms of the simplicity of the erection process, economy in the use of material, and visual quality.

You are cordially invited to cover the event. Details as follows:

Date :	December 4, 1995 ( Monday )
Time :	Students will start to set up the landmarks from 1:30 p.m. Press conference at 3:30 p.m.
Venue:	Area adjacent to the Lotus Pond, Chung Chi College, CUHK ( Campus map attached )
Enquiries:	Information & PR Office, Shirley Kwok 2609-88097 and Luen Ho 2609-8891
