Chinese University top graduate in Economics received prize from the Nanyang Commercial Bank

July 14, 1996

Miss Chan Hiu-man, who will be graduating as the top student of the Department of Economics of the Chinese University this year, accepted a prize from the Nanyang Commercial Bank Ltd. at a presentation ceremony held recently at the Bank's Head Office.

The Prize was established at the Chinese University to honour the best graduate in Economics and his/her secondary school as well as to promote economics education. The regulation of the Prize has hence stipulated that the award money of HK$10,000 shall go to the school from which the recipient was admitted to the Chinese University, for the purpose of purchasing books and references in economics or other related subjects for the school library. The recipient, however, will be presented with a certificate of academic merit from the Department of Economics and a souvenir from the Nanyang Commercial Bank Ltd.

Miss Chan was a student of St. Paul's Co-educational College prior to entering the Chinese University. Her academic record at the University has been outstanding and she will continue to study for a Ph.D degree at the Yale University after graduation.

Among those who attended the ceremony were Messrs. Ng Lin-fung and Law Man-wah, Deputy General Managers of the Nanyang Commercial Bank, Prof. Sung Yun-wing, Chairman of the Economics Department of The Chinese University of Hong Kong and Mrs. Chen Lam Ngar-sheung, Principal of St. Paul's Co-educational College.
