The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Announced That Application for Admission Under The Provisional Acceptance Scheme Will Be Closed Soon

A CUHK Spokesman reminded that qualified students who intend to apply for admission under the Provisional Acceptance Scheme should submit their applications immediately. Application will be closed on 6th October, 1984 (Saturday). Application forms are still obtainable from schools offering Form Six courses, the Admissions and Registration Section or the Department of Extramural Studies, CUHK, at 14/F., Oriental Centre, 67 Chatham Road, Kowloon. Consultation services on application procedures, choice of potential major subjects, etc., are provided at the Admissions and Registration Section and the Department of Extramural Studies. Enquiries are welcome.

According to the regulations of the Provisional Acceptance Scheme, all day school one-year and two-year sixth-formers who are in their first year of studies can apply for admission on the strength of their current year Hong Kong Certificate of Education Examination results. Completed application forms can be submitted through principals of their schools or in person to the Admissions and Registration Section. Office hours of the said Section are as follows: Monday to Friday 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Saturday morning session as usual and 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. The Office will be closed on Sundays and public holidays.

The Spokesman reiterated that any applicant who has difficulty in nominating a reference to write an assessment report should contact the Admissions and Registration Section direct (direct line: 0 - 6352257 or 0 - 6352111 to relevant extensions). He explained that reference can be the principal or a teacher of the school in which the applicant is attending or has once attended. He/she can also be someone who knows the applicant well enough to make assessment, such as an extra-curricular activity tutor, a school social worker, a pastoral counsellor, etc. The Admissions and Registration Section is prepared to provide guidance and assistance regarding application procedures for those students who are in need.
