The Jackie Chan Charitable Foundation Scholarships and
The Jackie Chan Charitable Foundation Student Activities Minigrants
Presentation Ceremony

Six outstanding students were awarded the Jackie Chan Charitable Foundation Scholarships at a presentation ceremony held on 25th May. Officiating at the ceremony was Sir David Akers-Jones, Chairman of the Advisory Committee for the Jackie Chan Charitable Foundation. The recipients were selected for the awards because of their excellent academic achievement and potential. They were Miss Au Hiu-wah, Miss Chan Ngar-ling, Mr Chung Yu-sum, Miss Hong Hiu-suet, Miss Lee Bo-ye, and Miss Wong Mei-ki, who are respectively from the Departments of Fine Arts, Journalism & Communication, and Music. The value of each award was HK$5,000.

At the ceremony, six student groups devoted to the promotion of the arts, namely music, drama, dance, etc, also received student activities minigrants, as subsidies for organizing more meaningful activities on campus.

The awards were made for the first time this year, for the purpose of recognizing talents and encouraging the pursuit of excellence in the performing and technical arts among students of the Chinese University of Hong Kong, and to assist student groups in realising projects of cultural and artistic value.
