The Chinese University 30th Anniversary Scholarships for Undergraduate and Postgraduate Entrants 1993/94

To mark the occasion of its 30th anniversary, The Chinese University of Hong Kong will, from the 1993/94 academic year, offer a number of scholarships to outstanding undergraduate and postgraduate entrants. These scholarships are sponsored by the Lee Hysan Foundation.

There will be twelve scholarships for undergraduates and two for postgraduates in the academic year 1993/94. The value of the scholarship will cover the annual tuition fee, which is HK$17,000.

Applicants should be students who will commence their first year of full-time undergraduate or postgraduate study at the Chinese University in September 1993.

Candidates for the undergraduate scholarships should have also obtained excellent results in local public examinations; candidates for the postgraduate scholarships should have also obtained a Bachelor's degree with First Class Honours, or equivalent.

The 30th Anniversary Scholarships may be held in addition to any other scholarships, prizes, grants, loans and other forms of financial aid or award granted by the Chinese University, the Government, or any other outside organizations.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the following offices at the Chinese University:
