

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

TO NEWS EDITOR
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 18, 1995

Chinese University Has New Vice-Chairman and Council Members

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces today the following appointments:

New Vice-Chairman of the Council

Mr Anthony Neoh has been elected by University Council members as Vice-Chairman from July 1, 1995.

Mr Anthony Neoh QC, Chairman of the Securities and Futures Commission, is a specialist in matters relating to town planning, land, constitutional and administrative law. He is active in public service, serving on many boards, committees and councils in Hong Kong. He was also an Arbitrator in the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission.

A Council Member, Mr Neoh was elected as Vice-Chairman of the Council to succeed Dr. James Z.M. Kung on his retirement. Mr Neoh will assume a greater role in guiding the University's developments.

New Council Members

Dr Deanna Lee Rudgard and Dr Daniel Law Ping-leung were elected by the Chung Chi College Board of Trustees and the College Assembly of Fellows respectively to serve as members of the University Council.

A member of the Chung Chi College Board of Trustees during the past 11 years, Dr Rudgard came from a family which has staunchly supported the University's developments for many years. Dr Rudgard's father, the late Dr. Richard Charles Lee, had been the Founding Vice-Chairman of the University Council, and had played a leading role in charting the University's campus development since the early days. Dr Rudgard's mother, Dr Esther Lee, is a philanthropist and has lent unceasing support to the University's academic, research and campus developments.

Dr Rudgard herself is a keen supporter of educational and social service institutions. She is Honorary Fellow of her Alma Mater, St Hilda's College of Oxford University; member of the Rhodes Scholarship Selection Committee, and member of the Executive Committee of the Hong Kong Society for the Protection of Children. She is also Director of various companies, including Hysan Development Company Ltd and Lee Hysan Estate Company Ltd, as well as Executive Secretary of the Lee Hysan Foundation Ltd.

- 2 -

Dr Daniel Law Ping-leung is a well-known composer, conductor as well as music theorist. He is currently Senior Lecturer at the University's Department of Music.

Dr Law graduated from the Chinese University with a BA degree in 1970. He further pursued his studies at the Northwestern University in the United States, and was awarded a Master of Music and a PhD degree.

Since joining the University as a teacher in 1976, Dr Law has participated actively in committee work at both the College and University levels. He is a member of Chung Chi College Board of Trustees and the College Assembly of Fellows; the Senate Committee on Student Discipline as well as the Undergraduate Examinations Board.

Dr Law also serves as member, honorary director and consultant of various music societies in Hong Kong and abroad.

---

Note to Editors:

Photos of the three are ready for collection at the GIS.

For press enquiries, please contact Ms Ida Yuen of the Chinese University's Information & PR Office at 2609-8896.