新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

The Council of The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces the appointment of Professor Ambrose Y C King as Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University for a term of two years from October 11, 1989. Together with Professor Baysung Hsu, there are two Pro-Vice Chancellors at the University.

Professor King received his BA (Law) from National Taiwan University in 1957, MA (Political Science) from National Chengchi University in 1959, and PhD (Public & International Affairs) from the University of Pittsburgh, USA in 1970.

He had taught at National Chengchi University, served as Associate Editor of the Taiwan Commercial Press Ltd, and Editor-in-chief of The Eastern Miscellany. Professor King joined The CUHK in 1970 as lecturer in sociology, and was promoted to senior lecturer in 1974, and reader in 1979. Since 1983, he has been Professor of Sociology at the University.

Over the last twenty years, apart from devoting himself to teaching and research, Professor King has made important contributions to the University's administration and academic development. He was head of New Asia College from 1977 to 1985 and Chairman of a Special Panel on Curriculum Review from 1983 to 1985, which recommended a new curriculum based on the adoption of the credit unit system. He is currently chairman of the Department of Sociology and a member of the University Council, the Senate and many other University committees.

Professor King has actively participated in community services. He has served on the Community Research Sub-Committee and Citizens Advisory Committee on Community Relations of the ICAC, the Law Reform Commission, and the Council of the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts. He is now a part-time member of the Government's Central Policy Unit and a member of the Advisory Board for Lingnan College's General Education Division.
