The Chinese University of Hong Kong Invites Applications for the Part-time Degree Programmes

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces today that the University will accept applications for admission to the Part-time Degree Programmes in the academic year 1993-94. The deadline for application is 31 March 1993.

The Part-time Degree Programmes were established to provide further training for working adults from different occupation sectors, and to offer opportunities for those who are interested in pursuing University degree but have missed the chance when they were at school. Programmes to be offered in 1993-94 include Biology - Chemistry, Business Administration, Chinese - English, Mathematics - Statistics, Music, Physical Education and Primary Education Programmes.

The normal length of study is six years. Students have to complete at least 123 units of courses before graduation. Those admitted on the strength of results in the Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination will be considered to have completed 24 units. Besides, students who have satisfied the special entrance requirements of certain programmes shall be granted unit exemption and may be graduated in three to four years. Students are also allowed to accelerate their study by increasing their course load from the second year of attendance onwards if they fulfil the prescribed requirements.

Application forms can be obtained from the following offices:

- (a) Admissions Section
Room 201, Sui-Loong Pao Building
The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Shatin, N.T.
- (b) Department of Extramural Studies
