

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

TO NEWS EDITOR
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 2, 1993

The Chinese University of Hong Kong Faculty of Education is pleased to announce that a conference on primary education will be held on Thursday, April 8, 1993 at Chung Chi Chapel and Ho Tim Building on the university campus. The conference, the theme of which is "Facing up to Challenges in Primary Education", will provide participants with an opportunity to discuss existing issues and problems in primary education. Dr. Leslie Lo, Dean of the Faculty of Education, CUHK, will deliver the welcoming speech. Professor Rosie Young, Chairperson of the Education Commission, has kindly consented to officiate at the opening ceremony. The Faculty is particularly honoured by the presence of Professor A.V. Kelly, Dean of Faculty of Education, Goldsmiths' College, University of London, who will deliver the keynote lecture on "Concepts of Primary Education - Principles into Practice". This will be followed by four parallel sessions throughout the day, which will cover such areas as curriculum development, learning targets, students' emotional problems, school management, school-based teacher development, computerization of school administration and extra-curricular reading.

The conference will begin at 8:40 a.m. and finish at 4:40 p.m.

For further information, please contact Mr. Raymond Tam, Faculty of Education (Tel.: 6096905, Fax: 6036129).

For press enquiries, please contact Mrs Shirley Kwok at 609 7294 of the Chinese University's Information Office.