DIPLOMA COURSE IN COMPANY MANAGEMENT (1995-96)

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces that applications are invited for the Diploma Course in Company Management 95-96 jointly organized by the Faculty of Business Administration and Asia-Pacific Institute of Business (APIB) of the University.

The one-year course is designed for owner-managers, management personnel and potential business owners, with the aim to provide training in conceptual analysis, skills in decisions making, leadership, and communications for more efficient management. Case analysis and computer aided instruction will also be used in teaching.

The course will begin on 25 March, 1995. Classes will meet once a week, on Saturday, from 2:30 pm to 6:30 pm on the University campus. The course will be lectured by the staff members of the University's Business Administration Faculty and experienced professionals in the business community.

Applicants should have obtained at least Form 5 level of education, and be proficient in both Chinese and English. They should also be business owners, business executives or in related positions with relevant working experience.

Application forms and brochures of the course will be available at the following venues starting from December 19, 1994.
