The Chinese University of Hong Kong staged the first part of a Tanner Lecture yesterday (November 15) at the Sir Run Run Shaw Hall on the University Campus. Professor Fei Xiao-tong, a distinguished Chinese social anthropologist and Professor of Sociology at Beijing University, China, spoke on "Unity and Plurality: Reflections on Ethnic Relations in China". The Lecture was attended by academics, students and members of the public.

The second part of the Lecture will be held tomorrow (November 17) at 4:30 pm in Room L1, R C Lee Lecture Hall in the University. All are welcome. Two seminars to complement the Lecture will be held respectively today and on Friday, November 18 in the Cho Yiu Conference Hall of the University Administration Building.

The Tanner Lectures, founded in Cambridge University in 1978, have over the past decade sponsored many important lectures primarily on human values by prominent scholars in prestigious universities. This is the first time a Tanner Lecture has been held in Hong Kong.
