

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

一九八八年十月廿六日

李國章教授並應英國皇家外科學院之邀，主持該學院每年在Lincoln's Inn Fields舉行的有關腫瘤的Stanford Cade紀念講座，李教授在講座中闡述香港中文大學腫瘤研究組有關肝癌的研究成果，該研究組由多位研究癌症專家組成。

香港中文大學外科學系首任講座教授兼系主任李國章教授最近於出席英國皇家外科學院一九八八年大會中獲該學院頒授Gordon Watson獎章，該獎章每五年頒發一次，授予對外科醫學有傑出貢獻者。李教授在大會致辭時概述威爾斯親王醫院兼為大學教習醫院啟用以來，香港的外科醫學得到長足發展，並有多方面的革新，威爾斯親王醫院足為政府與大學合作成功的典範。

Professor Arthur K C Li, Foundation Professor of Surgery at The Chinese University of Hong Kong and Chairman of the Department of Surgery was awarded the Gordon Watson Medal by the Royal College of Surgeons of England at the 1988 Annual Meeting. This award is made every 5 years for contribution to surgery. In delivering the keynote address to accept the medal, Professor Li outlined the recognised surgical advances and innovations made in Hong Kong since the opening of the Prince of Wales Hospital which serves as a model of co-operation between government and university.

Professor Arthur K C Li was also invited by the Royal College of Surgeons of England to deliver the Stanford Cade Memorial Lecture which is delivered annually at the College in Lincoln's Inn Fields on a topic related to cancer. Professor Li lectured on the Advances in Liver Cancer made by the efforts of the Cancer Research Group of The Chinese University of Hong Kong. This group consists of different specialists all interested in various aspects of cancer research.
