新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

The Chinese University of Hong Kong announces that the Second of the University's 20th Anniversary Lecture Series will be given by Professor Ch'ien Mu (錢穆) on Friday, April 8, 1983 at 4:15 p.m. in the Sir Run Run Shaw Hall on the University campus. Professor Ch'ien, who will make a special trip to Hong Kong for the lecture, will speak on "Stages of the Evolution of Chinese Culture" in Mandarin.

Professor Ch'ien is a world renowned scholar known for his works on Chinese intellectual history and philosophy. He was founder of New Asia College and has served as the College's First President for 15 years from 1951 to 1965. He has been honoured in the 60's by the Hong Kong University and Yale University for the awards of honorary doctoral degrees.

The Anniversary Lecture is open to the public. Members coming to the lecture from town are advised to take the KCR train departing Hung Hom Station at 3:14 p.m. for the University. Free bus service between the University Train Station and the Sir Run Run Shaw Hall will be available on the afternoon of April 8 both before and after the lecture.

Dear Editors,

This is the second release of the same news item intended as a reminder to interested members of the community after the long Easter Holidays. Kindly have this published on April 6.

You are cordially invited to send a reporter and/or photographer to cover the above lecture, the text of which will be distributed on the spot. Friends from the press will be invited to tea after the lecture.
