October 31, 1990

CUHK Open Day 1990

The 1990 Open Day of The Chinese University of Hong Kong will take place on November 10 and 11. An occasion to strengthen the ties between the University and the community at large, the Open Day will feature a large variety of activities including a Public Lecture Series, exhibitions, forums, entertainment programmes, and a Debate. The Debate, to be conducted in Cantonese, will be held at 4:00 pm on Saturday, November 10, 1990 in the Multi-purpose Hall at John Fulton Centre on the University campus. The motion for the Debate will be whether the last Governor of Hong Kong should be a Chinese. Two mixed teams consisting of Legislative Councillors, CU academics and students have agreed to participate. They are the Hon Mrs Rosanna Tam; the Hon Szeto Wah; Dr Richard Wong, Senior Lecturer in Economics; Dr Chan Hoi-man, Lecturer in Sociology; Mr Ho Hon-sum, a student in Journalism & Communication; and Miss Chiu Wai-ying, a student in Business Administration. The Debate will be chaired by Mr T L Tsim, Director of the CU Press. Members of the audience may speak on the motion and vote on which should be the winning team.

The Debate is open to the public. For seat reservation and enquiries, please contact staff of the Office of Student Affairs at 6952234 or 6952203.
