The Chinese University of Hong Kong staged the fifth of its series of 25th Anniversary Lectures yesterday (September 27) at the Sir Run Run Shaw Hall on the University campus. Dr Milton Friedman spoke on "Free Markets and Free Men".

Dr Friedman, Senior Research Fellow at the Hoover Institution of Stanford University, is one of the most persistent and persuasive advocates of free enterprise and monetarist policies. In his Lecture, Dr Friedman examined the relation between free markets and free men, with particular reference to the experience of Hong Kong. He also explored the basic requisites for perserving a free society.

The Lecture was attended by a house-packed audience of over 1500 comprising academics, students and members of the public.
