新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

April 6, 1990

Presentation of Educational Equipment to
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

A ceremony to mark the presentation of educational equipment from the Japanese Government to The Chinese University of Hong Kong will be held on Monday, April 9, 1990 at 11:30 a.m. at Cho Yiu Hall, the University, and will be attended by Mr Minoru Kubota, the Consul-General of Japan in Hong Kong and Professor Charles K. Kao, the Vice-Chancellor of the University.

The original grant, with which the equipment has been purchased, totalled HK$2.27 million, and was presented by the Japanese Government in November 1989 with the intention of strengthening the Japanese Studies Programme in the University through the purchase of educational aids such as audio-visual and computer equipment and books.

The press are cordially invited to this important presentation.

Dear Editor,

It would be much appreciated if you would send a reporter and a photographer/cameraman to cover the above presentation ceremony on Monday, April 9, 1990, at 11:30 a.m..

Please also note that a mini-bus will be arranged to pick up the press at the exit of the University Railway Station on the day and it will leave for Cho Yiu Hall at 11:20 am. Transportation will also be provided after the ceremony.

Should you like to have further information, please feel free to contact Miss Annie Wan, Assistant Information Officer, at Tel: 6952359.

Yours faithfully,

Clara Lee (Mrs)
Information Officer
