

新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

TO NEWS EDITOR
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 16, 1993

Chinese University Honoured Top Graduate in Economics

The Chinese University's top graduate in economics this year, Mr Pou Hak-wan, was awarded a prize from the Nanyang Commercial Bank Ltd. in a presentation ceremony held recently at the Bank's Head office.

Mr. Pou has an outstanding academic record since his secondary school days at the St. Joseph's College. He plans to join the banking field after graduation.

The prize Pou received was established to promote economics education and to honour the best graduate in economics as well as his/her secondary school. The award of HK$10,000 went to the St. Joseph's College for purchasing books in economics and other related subjects. Pou was presented a certificate and a souvenir.

Among those who attended the ceremony were Mr. Ng Lin-fung and Mr. Law Man-wah, Deputy General Managers of the Nanyang Commercial Bank; Dr. Liu Pak-wai, Chairman of the Economics Department of the Chinese University; Mr. Lawrence Tsui and Mr. K.C. Sharma, Careers Masters of St. Joseph's College.

For press enquiries, please contact Ms Annie Lam (6097267) or Mrs Shirley Kwok (6097294) of the Chinese University's Information Office.

Attachment : photo of the prize presentation ceremony