新聞稿 PRESS RELEASE

The School of Education of The Chinese University of Hong Kong, the San Francisco State University, and Naruto University of Education, Japan, are co-sponsoring an international conference on "Counseling in the 21st Century" at the Regal Meridien Hotel, Tsimshatsui East, from 29th to 30th December, 1989.

The Conference is organized in the form of individual and panel presentations on emerging counseling issues in Asian countries and the United States, including specific issues that will affect counseling in the future, such as aging; changing role of women; and cultural, economic and/or political dynamics.

More than a hundred and sixty scholars and practitioners from fields of counseling, psychology, psychiatry and social work from the United States, Japan, Taiwan, Singapore, Canada, Australia and Hong Kong will be here to present papers and to participate in the panel discussions.

At the Opening Ceremony on 29th December, at 9:00 am in the Versailles, Regal Meridien Hotel, Tsimshatsui East, the Vice-Chancellor of The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Professor Charles Kun Kao, will deliver the opening address.
